¹ Ms. Martin filed Docket #538 because # 20 was incorrectly docketed as “RESPONSE by defendant ALICE GRESHAM BULLOCK in opposition to motion to set aside entry of default [19-1] by ALICE GRESHAM BULLOCK, motion to dismiss complaint [1-1] [19-2] by ALICE GRESHAM BULLOCK . (lkn) (Entered: 12/01/1999).” Clearly, Alice Gresham Bullock did not file an opposition to her own motion to dismiss the Complaint. Ms. Martin had filed several previous motions and praecipies requesting that this and other docket errors be corrected. See Docket #537.

86	3/4/98 Personnel Action for Prof. Cunningham	14,135
87	3/6/98 Memo from Prof. Martin to Dean Bullock requesting for Meeting Regarding her application for a tenure track position or a renewal of her visitorship, explaining that, when she was recruited, Prof. Taslitz had promised that her visitorship would be renewed until a tenure track position was available to “slide” her into it	14,140

88	3/31/98 Letter from Prof. Martin to Prof. Taslitz asking him to speak up for her and tell Dean Bullock “the truth,” –that he did promise her that her “visitorship” would be renewed until Howard had a tenure track position and could “slide” her into it	14,143
89	4/1/98 Memo from Prof. Taslitz to Dean Bullock forwarding to her the 3/31/98 letter that he received from Prof. Martin and asking for assurances that Howard would provide him with legal representation if Prof. Martin sues him personally	14,149
92	4/8/98 Memo from Dean Bullock to Prof. Martin refusing to renew Prof. Martin’s contract, even for one more year, stating that Prof. Martin “had no article accepted for publication, as of December 18, 1997,” and that Howard has no course needs in the areas that Prof. Martin teaches	14,150
93	4/8/98 memo from Prof. Martin to Dean Bullock, reapplying for any available teaching position, suggesting that both she and Prof. Cunningham continue to teach the courses they had taught for the previous two years at Howard and that the new hire, Prof. Mtima, teach commercial law and property, which he listed as his preferences, rather than terminating her contract and reassigning her courses	14,153
94	4/8/98 memo from Prof. Martin to Howard University President Swygart requesting a meeting regarding Dean Bullock’s refusal to renew her contract and the stalking by Leonard Harrison	14,156

96	4/10/98 memo from Dean Bullock to Prof. Martin stating that the only course needs are in tax and trusts and estates and that Prof. Taslitz denies representing to her, at the time of her hire, that she would be renewed and then moved into a tenure track position when it became available; also characterizes Prof. Martin’s 4/8/98 memo (Joint Ex. 93) as suggesting that Dean Bullock “reassign new hires to permit you to teach certain courses.”	14,159

97	4/10/98 memo from Prof. Martin to Dean Bullock, correcting misstatements in Dean Bullock's memos to her, stating that: 1) her "911..." article was, in fact, "accepted for publication as of December 18, 1997" and the APT Committee members were specifically aware of it; 2) she did not suggest "reassigning" anyone, but, to the contrary, suggested that professors not be reassigned to cover courses that she had been teaching for two years; 3) she is highly qualified for the unfilled advertised vacant Constitutional Law/Civil Rights position and other faculty slots that could be used to fill other course needs identified by faculty and students	14,160
98	4/14/98 memo from Prof. Taslitz to Dean Bullock recusing himself from any further decisions regarding Prof. Martin and stating his intent not to have any further communications with her	14,165
99	4/15/98 memo from Prof. Leggett to Dean Bullock accepting her 4/6/98 recommendation to hire adjunct Prof. Angela Vallario, as a one-year visitor, to fill the tax position newly created in the same 4/6/98 memo, wherein Dean Bullock canceled the advertised Constitutional Law/Civil Rights position and converted it to a visiting tax position	14,166
100	4/15/98 memo from Prof. Leggett to Dean Bullock stating that Prof. Taslitz recused himself from the decision re Dean Bullock's request that adjunct Prof. Vallario be hired, full time, as a one year visitor	14,167
101	4/20/98 (date stamped 4/16/98) memo from Prof Leggett informing Prof. Martin that she was rejected for a faculty position because the law school had only one position available, in tax and trusts and estates, which required "a high degree of expertise" in those areas	14,168
102	4/20/98 memo from Dean Bullock to Prof. Martin stating that she forwarded her application to the APT Committee and that the Committee rejected her	14,169
106	5/6/98 memo from Prof. Leggett to faculty summarizing work of APT Committee during 1997-1998 academic year	14,170
